WHAT IS THIS ABOUT?

This case involves claims arising from Plaintiffs' purchases of Acura vehicles which contained a Bluetooth pairing device HandsFreeLink™ ("HFL") that allowed for hands-free cell phone calls. According to Plaintiffs : (1) the HFL system contains a defect causing it to malfunction by failing to properly switch off when not in use; (2) Honda was aware of the defect but failed to remedy it; and (3) they would not have purchased the vehicle, or would have paid less for it, had Honda disclosed the defect. Plaintiffs further allege that, as a result, they have suffered out-of-pocket losses and the diminished value of their vehicles. The Court has not decided whether Honda has done anything wrong and Honda denies it engaged in any wrongful conduct. Honda has not agreed to settle and will defend itself at trial. The Court appointed the law firms of Seeger Weiss LLP and Carella, Byrne, Cecchi, Olstein, Brody & Agnello, P.C. to represent Class Members as Class Counsel.

AM I PART OF THE CLASS?

The Class includes all persons who purchased the following Acura vehicles: 2004-2008 TL, 2005-2008 MDX, or 2007-2009 RDX in California, Kansas, New York, or Washington.
